RULES OF PLAY IN THE CROCODILE ISLAND AREA

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 1.1. Crocodile Island is an integral part of Jungle FUN (formerly Jamango) at Suntago Water Park and is subject to the Suntago Water Park General Rules, the General Rules for the Use of Slides in Jungle FUN (formerly Jamango) (the “General Slide Rules”) and these rules (the “Rules”).
- 1.2. Crocodile Island comprises all the attractions located in Jungle FUN (formerly Jamango) on the first floor, between the Va Bene Italian restaurant and the Sweet Corner food outlet.
- 1.3. To use the attractions in Crocodile Island, the User must hold a valid ticket to Suntago Water Park covering at least the Jungle FUN (formerly Jamango) zone.
- 1.4. Some attractions are subject to an additional charge. Detailed information is available at each attraction.

2. SAFETY RULES

- 2.1. Compliance with these Rules is supervised by the Park Staff. All persons using the attractions in the Crocodile Island area must strictly follow the instructions of the Suntago Water Park Staff.
- 2.2. Children under 13 may use Crocodile Island only under the constant supervision of their parents or adult guardians.
- 2.3. The guardian of a child using the Crocodile Island attractions must read these Rules, the information boards and the operating instructions, and ensure that the child complies with them.
- 2.4. Crocodile Island may be used by Users whose age, height and weight are within the limits indicated as permissible for the individual attractions, in accordance with the markings, including the pictograms displayed on each attraction.
- 2.5. For attractions where a maximum number of people allowed on the play structure at the same time is specified, the staff may, for safety reasons, refuse entry to Users exceeding that number.
- 2.6. Guardians are not permitted to enter the play structure. If it is necessary to communicate with a User on the upper levels of the structure, ask the Suntago Water Park Staff for assistance.
- 2.7. Users of the attractions in Crocodile Island must, regardless of the season, be completely dry and wear dry non-slip socks.
Failure to comply with the requirement to be dry entitles the Suntago Water Park Staff to refuse service, including asking the person to leave the Crocodile Island area.
- 2.8. The guardian should ensure that the minor User wears suitable clothing that does not restrict movement and, in particular, should remove the User's jewellery, chains, glasses and any accessories.
- 2.9. The equipment in Crocodile Island may be used only for its intended purpose and with due care. The attractions in Crocodile Island are sports equipment, and their use involves the particular risks associated with sporting activity, which the User accepts by choosing to use the play structure. Consequently, there is a risk of bodily harm or injury, even when the rules and operating instructions are followed. Suntago Water Park is not liable for injuries or damage caused by improper use of the equipment.

2.10. Users and Guardians are prohibited from:

- 1) climbing on safety barriers,
- 2) going behind the play structure/attraction,
- 3) going down the slide head first,
- 4) jumping off the slide,
- 5) entering the slide or the course incorrectly,
- 6) climbing up the slide ramp, or removing any equipment from Crocodile Island,
- 7) modifying the structure (including attempting to do so),
- 8) jumping into the ball pit or the mega-block pit,
- 9) entering areas closed to the public,
- 10) failing to comply with the applicable instructions and the directions of the Suntago Water Park Staff,
- 11) using the birthday rooms without first purchasing the service under the general terms applicable at Suntago Water Park;
- 12) bringing in or consuming food products.

2.11. If a User has an accident in Crocodile Island, this must be reported immediately to the Suntago Water Park Staff.

2.12. Smoking tobacco products, using e-cigarettes and consuming alcoholic beverages and narcotic substances are strictly prohibited in the Crocodile Island area. If the Suntago Water Park Staff find that a person is breaching this prohibition, that User and the child in their care may be refused service without the right to a refund. Persons whose behaviour suggests that they are under the influence of alcohol or narcotic substances are strictly prohibited from the Crocodile Island area. If it is found that a person's behaviour may pose a threat to other Users, that person, together with the child in their care, may be asked to leave Suntago Water Park in accordance with the procedure described in the Suntago Water Park General Rules.

2.13. The principles of good fun, mutual respect and courtesy apply in the Crocodile Island area. Everyone using Crocodile Island, i.e. Guardians and Users, is treated equally.

3. LIABILITY FOR PROPERTY

- 3.1. The User or their Guardian is liable for any damage caused by the User.
- 3.2. Guardians and Users are responsible for properly securing their personal belongings. In accordance with the General Rules, the operator of Suntago Water Park is not responsible for items left unattended and accepts no liability for any resulting losses, i.e. damage to or loss of, among other things, jewellery, chains, accessories, glasses and other items, regardless of their value.
- 3.3. Items found in the Crocodile Island area should be handed over to the Suntago Water Park Staff. Found items are returned to their owner after identification, for up to 30 days from the date they were found. Detailed provisions are set out in the Suntago Water Park General Rules.

4. RULES OF ENTRY FOR ORGANISED GROUPS TO CROCODILE ISLAND

- 4.1. Detailed information about events or special occasions according to the calendar can be found at www.parkofpoland.com, obtained on site (ul. Nowy Świat 1, 96-300 Wręcza) or by writing to eventy@parkofpoland.com
- 4.2. When organising an event or special occasion, the prices agreed upon purchase of the relevant package apply, in accordance with the Rules for the Use of Suntago Water Park by Organised Groups.
- 4.3. The leader of an organised group is responsible for communicating the content of these Rules to all members of the group, i.e. the Users.
- 4.4. Further information for organised groups can be found in the Rules for the Use of Suntago Water Park by Organised Groups (the “Organised Groups Rules”), available at Suntago Water Park and at <https://suntago.com/pl/regulaminy>.
